

Arabian Horse Association of Nebraska

HOOFBEATS

A publication to encourage, promote and develop the owning, training, breeding and enjoyment of the Arabian horse.

June 2015

It has been a busy and productive spring for AHAN. The 2015 Great Plains Arabian Classic was incredibly successful, and if you did not attend, you definitely missed a great time.

Lori Sass and DeAnne Allen initiated the T.A.I.L. program and had a terrific response to it. Ten groups with over 50 people responded. Their introduction to the Arabian horse included an educational presentation in the welcome booth set up in the main show arena, adjusted to their level of knowledge of horses in general before they were escorted to personally meet the horses. Many thanks to Lori and DeAnne for their enthusiasm and time towards this program.

New this year to the show was the Friday night wine tasting and hors d'oeuvres, and the always well received Saturday morning pancakes.

AHAN's added money jackpot classes had increased participation this year. Many positive comments were heard and with the success of this program the board of directors can continue to find possibilities to expand the concept.

As always I would like to thank the hardworking staff that is necessary for the show to run smoothly. Currently, work is in progress on the premium book for the LEC Superfair show August 8th and 9th. This will follow the two one-day show concept that has been offered in past years.

Best of Luck to those members hitting the road for the various regional shows in June and July, and for the rest of the membership at home, enjoy the summer sun and your Arabian horse!
